Getting started:

As a part of creative and agile project teams, you work independently and take on responsibilities to advance exciting digitalization projects (e.g. mobile and online banking, Big Data, Cloud, API, and many more).

Along with our agile Delivery Organisation, you will participate in an eight-week long election phase at one of our digital units. These include our DLT Lab, our design and digital agency Neugelb in Berlin, our new IT development hubs in Łódź or Sofia, the comdirect or mBank in Poland. Additionally, you will gain international experience at one of our locations in New York, Singapore or Tokyo. The entire programme is laid out over the course of 18 months and will be conducted in both German and English languages.

Your profile:

- You have completed a Bachelor's or Masters's degree
- Your "digital mindset" can be consistently thought of in (technological) solutions
- You are creative, brave and rich with ideas
- You speak English and German (B2)
- You are a teamplayer and communicate with great pleasure
- Technologies such as Cloud, API or blockchain and digital topics inspire you
- You have a strong hands-on mentality

What happens next:

After the completion of your trainee programme, we offer you various possibilities to further your career based on your personal aspirations and career objectives. You will then enter an exciting digital or strategic unit at Commerzbank or one of its subsidiaries.
